We shall not cease from exploration

And the end of all our exploring will

Be to arrive where we started and know

The place for the first time.

— T. S. Elliot

Dandelion,
White with age,
Releases her children to the air,
Watches them whirl and soar
On the warm currents;
Some will come to rest on soft grass
To become a new generation,
Others will be lost to the concrete.
— Pat Hogan

You wonder how these things begin.
Well, they begin with a book,
A teacher, a new sea of faces.
They begin with a season
Which, for want of a better word,
We might as well call
SEPTEMBER.

The trees soaked in the sun and the warmth
And eventually the Spring.
The vacuum of season that they produced
Brought us the cold.
They had not known that Winter had
No sympathy for trees.
He stripped away their vain colors
And we too rose against them.
Hacking at their bark and searching for the Spring they had coveted,
Now we sit by the fire.
The logs release the sun and the warmth
They hoarded in the Spring.
While Winter scratches at the windows.
He has no sympathy for men.

— Pat Hogan

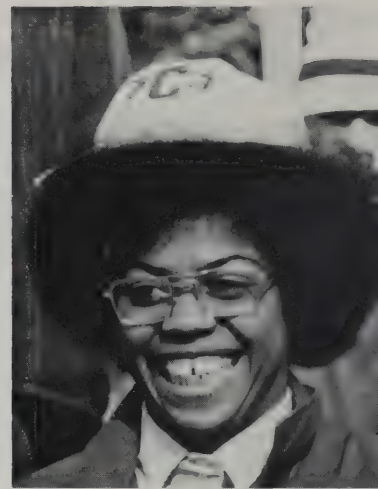

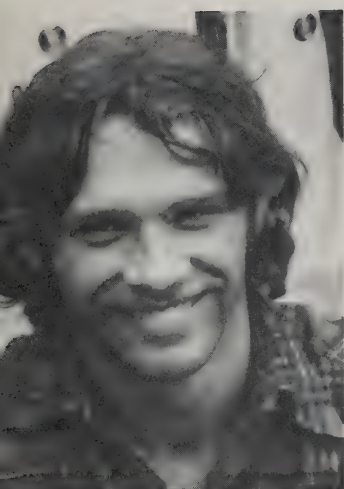

All my life's a circle,
An ever-spinning wheel.
All my life revolves upon
A carousel unreal.
People, places, what I see
Blur before my eyes.
All my life's a circle;
I couldn't tell you why.

All my life's a circle,
A song from then to now.
The lyrics change; confusion reigns.
The question is, "But how?"
All my life's a circle.
I'll always wonder why
All my life's a circle,
From birth until I die.

— Jeanne Magliola

Yesterday a child came out to wonder
Caught a dragonfly inside a jar
Fearful when the sky was full of thunder
And tearful at the falling of a star
Then the child moved ten times round the seasons
Skated over ten clear frozen streams
Words like "when you're older" must appease him
And promises of someday make his dreams
 And the seasons they go round and round
 And the painted ponies go up and down
 We're captive on the carousel of time
 We can't return we can only look behind
 From where we came
 And go round and round and round
 In the circle game
Sixteen springs and sixteen summers gone now
Cartwheels turn to cartwheels through the town
And they tell him, "Take your time, it won't be long now
'Til you drag your feet to slow the circles down."
 And the seasons they go round and round
 And the painted ponies go up and down
 We're captive on the carousel of time
 We can't return, we can only look behind
 From where we came
 And go round and round and round
 In the circle game
So the years spin by and now the boy is twenty
Though his dreams have lost some grandeur coming true
There'll be new dreams, maybe better dreams and plenty
Before the last revolving year is true
 And the seasons they go round and round
 And the painted ponies go up and down
 We're captive on the carousel of time
 We can't return, we can only look behind
 From where we came
 And go round and round and round
 In the circle game

Human Relationships . . .

Mr. Russell Peterson — principal
"Classical provides the basic core of education."

Expensive machinery or 'programmed learning' will never replace teachers, for inter-personal relationships are always important. Facilities don't make education . . . it is the motivation of the student that matters."

Miss Carolina Accorsi — language

"Our young people are the hope of our nation and of the world. It is in this spirit that I approach them, treat them, teach them. This is a privilege and a joy as well as an obligation and a duty. For this reason, our goals must be reasonable, balanced, and high rather than low, and all this with firmness and kindness. Good wishes!"

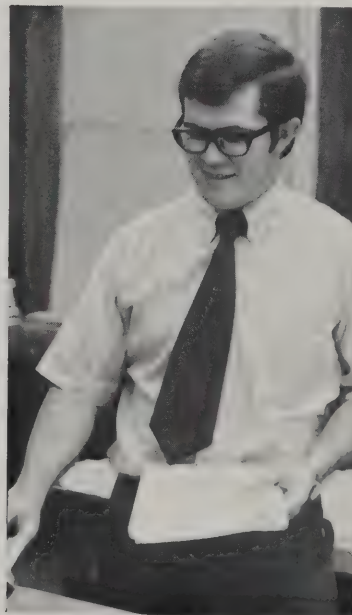

Mr. Richard Annino — math
"Kids should use the computer more."

Mrs. Julia Bale — math

"A good teacher is a person who has an enthusiasm for his subject, an interest in the welfare of his students, and the ability to present new concepts in a lucid, thought-provoking manner."

Mr. Francis Baran — science
"Belief would be vain without the confirmation of experiment."
— Francisco Ridi

Mrs. Ellen Barkhuff — science
"Don't compromise yourself because you're the only thing you have."
— Janis Joplin

Mrs. Julia Beverley — math
"In the words of Dr. William C. Hill, a great former principal of Classical, 'Classical High School is the best school in the solar system.'"

Mrs. Rose Burns — nurse

"My work at Classical has been very rewarding. Looking after the health of teen-agers can present many problems, but with the co-operation of teachers and students I feel we do very well."

Mrs. Mildred Cabana — counselor

"I see my job as a service ... to secure and distribute information of all kinds. I deal with community problems, personal problems, even legal problems."

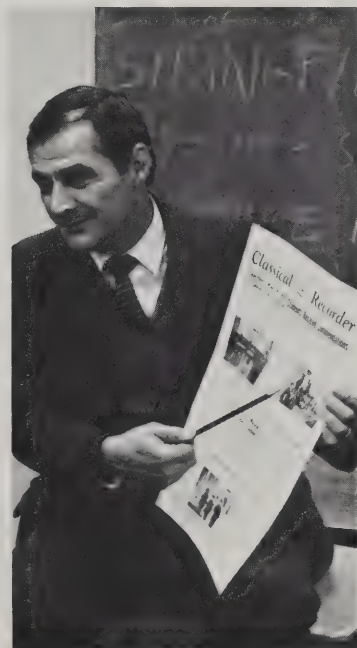

Mr. Henry Brady — English

"Teaching is not programming, any more than learning is a rote response. Rather, they involve a mutual search for a content and a method which promote communication and understanding. On good days, I communicate and sense some understanding."

Miss Isabelle Brown — librarian

"Never a dull moment."

Mrs. Jean Bogan — English

... Are Important

Classical Is a Place . . .

We found a special sense of school pride among the members of the staff.

The rich heritage of Classical inspires a wish among the staff to maintain the school's excellence.

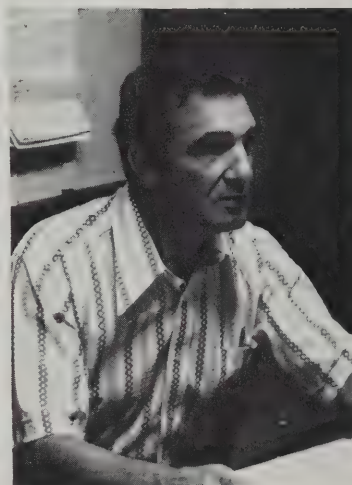

Mr. Gerald Canter — counselor
"I never met a finer group of kids whose ideas about education and life seem to be so healthy."

Miss Judith Carlson — English

Mr. Archie Cataldi — gym
"At Classical we expect a little extra from our athletes . . . the type of athlete at Classical is excellent."

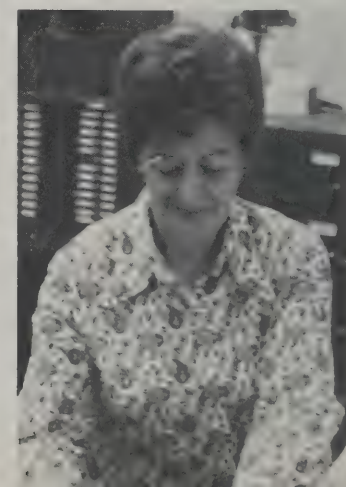

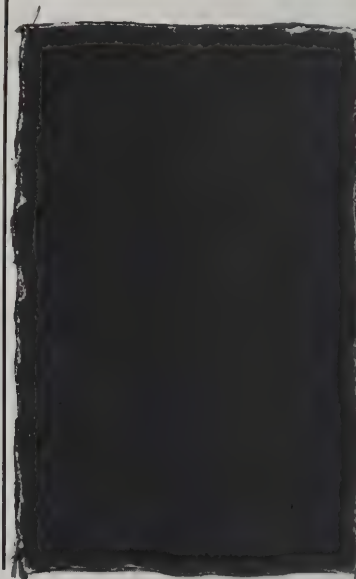

Miss Andrea Checile — language
"En bocas cerradas, no entran moscas."

Mr. William Conway — history
"As you leave school and enter this materialistic society try to look back at Classical and recall that knowledge is truth and truth conquers all."

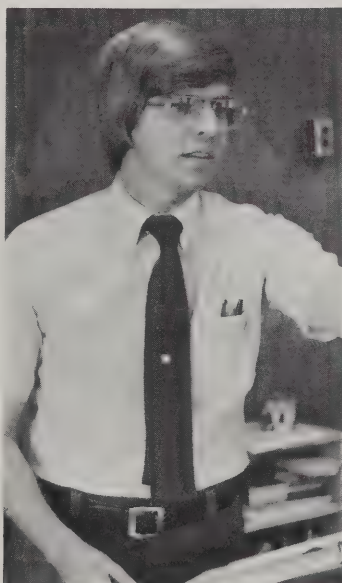

Miss Mary Corcoran — counselor
"My creed — that there shall be no day that I shall not help young people develop insight and seek to find worthwhile goals."

Mrs. Vi Creanza — office aide
"I find working for English and Science departments interesting and challenging."

Miss Ruth Dickerman — English
 "Over the front entrance of our school are carved the words THE HIGH SCHOOL. Such a designation is a logical name for the school called Classical High, for the root of the word Classical means 'superior,' 'of the first rank.' Through the years Classical has, indeed, been distinguished as a superior school. It is the never-ceasing privilege and obligation of all in the Classical community to maintain that standard of excellence."

Mr. David Douglas — language

Mr. Thomas Dowd — history
 "Let's start today, boys."

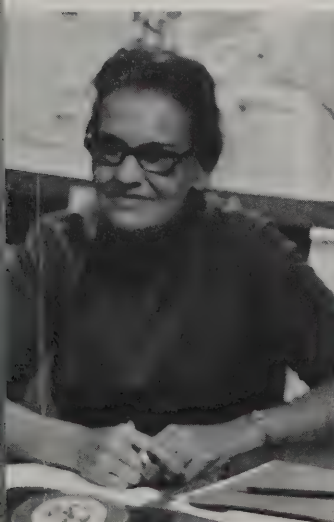

Mrs. Nancy Duffy — language
 "Vive Classical!"

... of Fine Traditions

Mrs. Susan Danton — English
 "In this generation, everyone seems so bored and turned off that the best way to avoid boredom is to become involved in something."

Mrs. Audrey Desrochers — gym
 "If it's worth doing, it's worth doing right."

Students . . .

The general opinion of the teachers was that Classical's students are an exceptional group, who work hard in a stiff college prep atmosphere and develop healthy ideas about education and life.

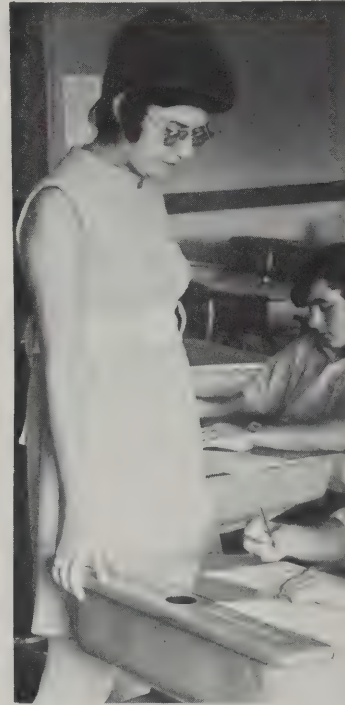

Mrs. Frances Evans — history
"Let's take in the scene through our social eyeglasses."

Mrs. Gail Fiorentino — science
"Meet life and live it with strength and confidence, and when life gives you lemons, "smile" and make lemonade."

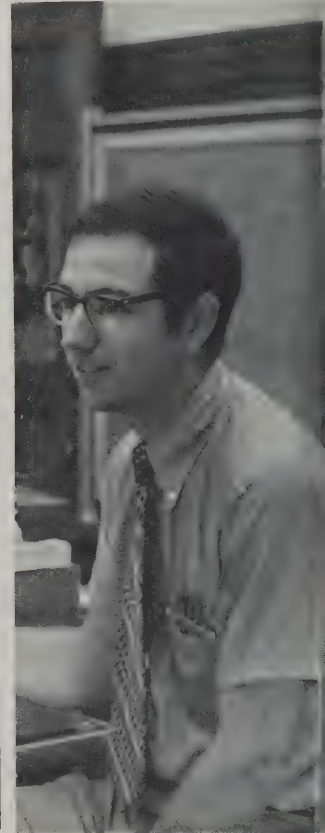

Miss Marilyn Freedman — math
"A circle is a square without any corners."

Mr. Francis Girr — English
"One certainly learns much about himself during his years at Classical."

Mr. Richard Guzowski — science
"The decision you make now will shape your future and that of the environment."

Mrs. Jeanette Harris — history
"A man's worth cannot be measured by his purse nor by the color of his skin."

Mr. Phillip Hart — asst. principal
"I think the kids at Classical are superior to the kids at most schools."

Mr. Clark Henderson — history
"Life is people. If you can't dig 'em, you ain't alive."
— Tshaka 1972

Mr. Armand Jermakian — math

Miss Marilyn Johnson — English
"The greatest gift one can give to another person is a deeper understanding of life and the ability to love and believe in self."
— Chantal

Mr. Robert Keough — math
"The shortest distance between two points is not always a straight line."

... Are Terrific

Life . . .

You miss your bus . . . you fall on the way to the Annex . . . you look up during your study to see a student crawling out the back door . . . surprise quiz . . . you forget your locker key . . . fire drill
during your only study of the day . . . you give ten kids detention and then find out it's your night
to watch detention hall . . . you read
Return of the Native in one night and find out it isn't due 'till next week . . .
you come in late to miss a first period test and find out the teacher
didn't give the test . . .
term papers from all five classes come in on the same day . . . you write yourself ten early dismissals and then find out they'll be on the report card . . . all the other schools are closed because of snow and your school is open . . . the master for your test is eaten by the mimeograph machine five minutes before the class starts.

Mr. Michael Kokonowski —
English

"An educated person is one who knows the significance of what he does. He has the ability to formulate an opinion of an issue through logical and insightful reasoning. The opinion is his own."

Education fosters self-reliance, and yet it is the antithesis of isolation. It possesses intrinsic value which indirectly works to improve everything that people do."

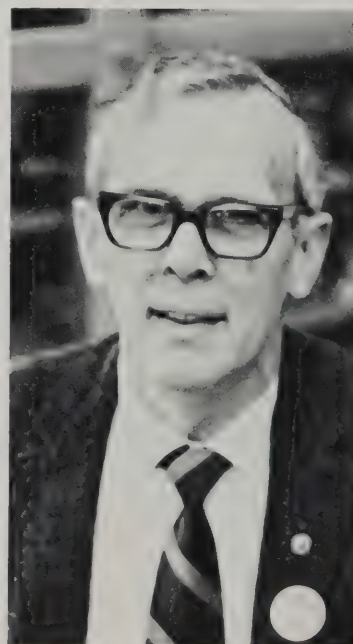

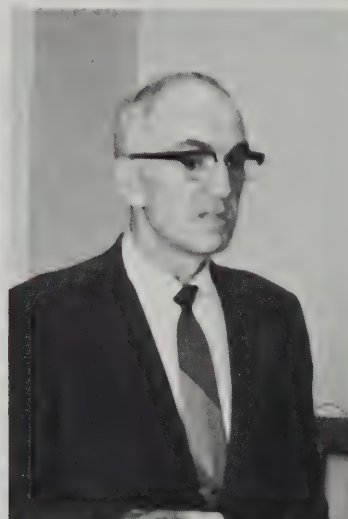

Mrs. Mary Kopy — secretary
"The students are all terrific."

Mr. Euclid Lague — language
"May the fine tradition of academic excellence at Classical High School which has given the school such a fine reputation down through the years long endure."

Mr. Francis Lamoureux —
science

"The greatest cycle of all is the cycle of Life with its recurrent themes of birth, growth and death. As a teacher, I have always found stimulation and excitement in helping students to move forward to the birth of new ideas, to new ways of looking at the world and at their own behavior. I exult as I see my students grow and move forward with confidence in their own powers of self discipline. As each school year comes to a close, it is a little bit like the passing of a dear friend — but I am comforted to know, that it is just a new beginning for the Classical graduates who leave us each June."

Mrs. Helen Landry — language
"It's really nice to be back at Classical! I started here in 1969-70 as a long-term substitute."

Mr. Stephen LeClair — history
"In America the young are always ready to give to those who are older than themselves the full benefits of their inexperience."

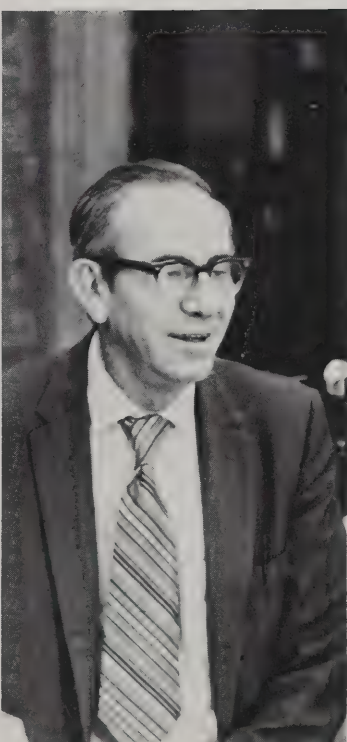

Mr. Michael Ligarski — math

Mr. Edward Lundrigan — science
"Happiness is an ice cold bottle of whatever pleases you."

Mr. Raymond Lussier — language
"Seigneur, seigneur, pourquoi m'avez vous abandonne!"

Mr. Howard Lynch — science

Mr. David Macomber — language
"Give just a little bit more. Take a little bit less."

— Moody Blues

... Is Rough

The Greatest Cycle . . .

LIFE
spins webs of aspiration and desire which
IS BUT
its method of holding us prisoners in
A DREAM.

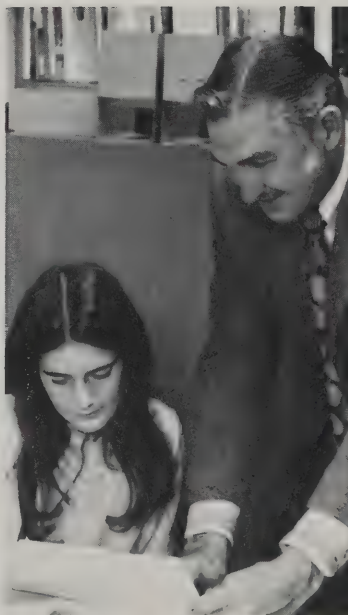

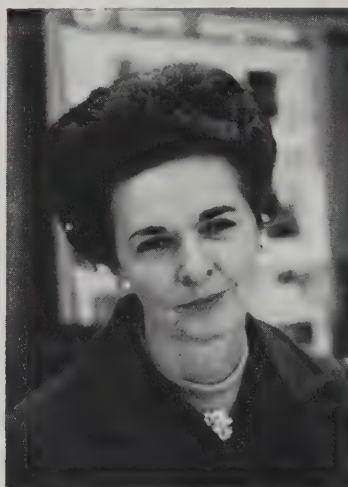

Mr. Raymond Marr — counselor
"People are my world."

Mr. Arnold Matz — language

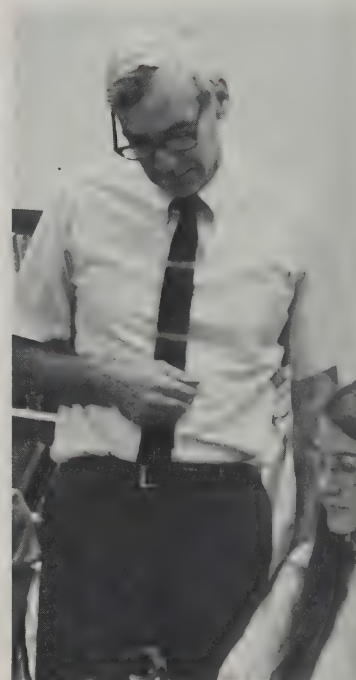

Miss Mary McCarthy — language

Mr. Baron McDuffee — counselor
"It's a pleasure to help kids."

Mr. Daniel Meder — history
"The hottest places in hell are reserved for those, who in the time of great moral crisis, maintain their neutrality."
— John F. Kennedy

Miss Irene Meunier — language
"Qui veut, peut!"

Dr. Philip Miller — language
 "Classical High School is proud of its students who have gone forth and contributed to a better society. May this year's graduates be blessed with wise hearts to play their role in the world, enriched with the cultural and historical heritage which is theirs."

Miss Virginia Mills — English
 "A little learning is a dangerous thing, / Drink deep or taste not the Pierian spring."
 — Alexander Pope

Mrs. Diane Molaghan — English
 "No bird soars too high,
 If he soars with his own wings."
 — William Blake

Mrs. Betty Moody — counselor
 "We have made of this world a neighborhood; now we are challenged to make of it a brotherhood."

Mrs. Ellen Mossi — secretary
 "Teachers are terrific."

Mrs. Mary Mushok — math

... the Cycle of Life

Teachers Learn . . .

Students often think that the teacher-pupil relationship is an inflexible one in which the teacher always teaches and the pupil always learns. We do not realize that teaching is a learning experience — the student often gives the teacher valuable insight into human behavior.

Mr. James Nordurf — math
"Classical's a nice place."

Mr. James O'Donnell — science
"Chance favors the prepared mind."
— Louis Pasteur

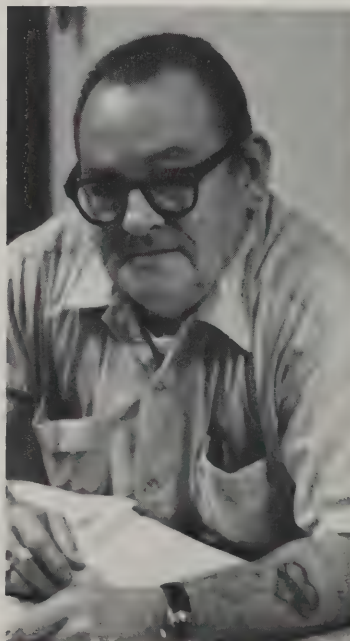

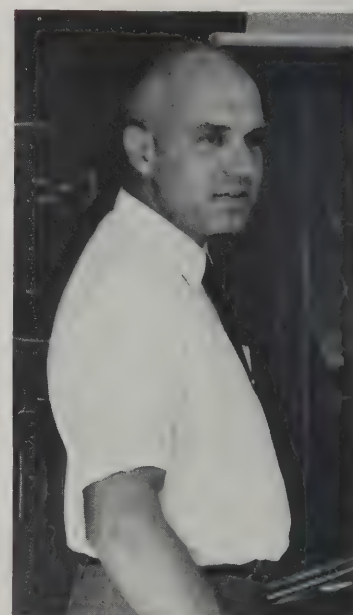

Dr. Vincent O'Keefe — music

Mr. William Paige — custodians
"It's your building, keep it clean."

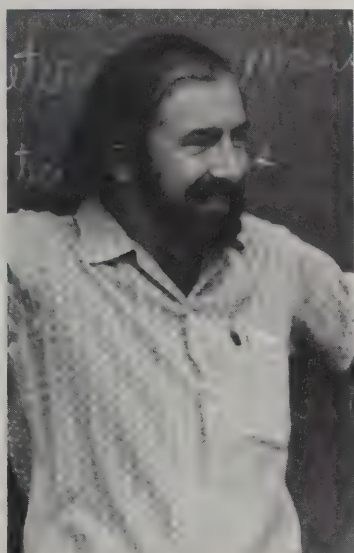

Mr. Richard Pare — math

Mr. Allan Peck — math
"An accepted theorem of life is that if one acts in a responsible manner, he will receive privileges."

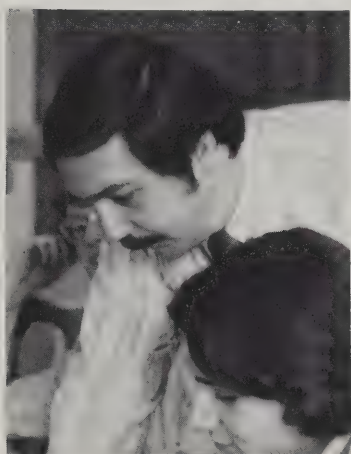

Mr. Richard Pervonga — English
 "If you're going to be wrong, be gloriously wrong."

Miss Lorraine Plasse — English
 "William Faulkner advised young writers to 'Get it down. Take chances. It may be bad, but it's the only way you can do anything really good.' One might give this advice about life in general."

Mr. James Podwarski — English
 "You will do foolish things, but do them with enthusiasm."

Mrs. Erline Provost — science
 "What should be is — Peace, love, and true humanity."

Miss Teresa Regina — English
 "To view the heights with awareness of the depths,
 To temper the dream with acceptance of the actual,
 To laugh with knowledge of tears,
 To live the moment with feeling of eternity,
 — These create man's torment and salvation."

Mr. Paul Robbins — music

... As Students Learn

Learn to Live . . .

The part that we will play in the world of tomorrow is being created when we decide what direction we will take after high school. Whether we make right or wrong decisions, however, we must learn to live with them.

Miss Linda Rozzi — math
"No, math is not a foreign language."

Mrs. Rose Rubino — secretary
"Interesting, varied job."

Miss Maria Santos — language

Mr. John Sawyer — English
"Education is the basis for tolerance and peace."

Mrs. June Schoppe — art
"An artist's work is of himself in the same way that a man is the sum of his experiences. To view a work of art is to look into the artist's soul, to share an ageless, spiritual intimacy with him. To appreciate his work requires only that one acknowledge his right as an individual to express an opinion."

Mr. Jerome Shea — science
"In the world of life, success is measured by survival. The failures can only be fossils. The survival is never of individuals — only of life itself. Individuals reproduce and are replaced by another generation. In the course of time, even types of organisms change. Continuity of life, then, is a reflection of reproduction and evolution."

— Biological Science:
An Inquiry Into Life

Miss Susan Shea — history
"Students want to understand the present but to do it, they must know the past. Their world is a product of every past generation."

Mrs. Mary Sheehan — secretary
"Keep smiling."

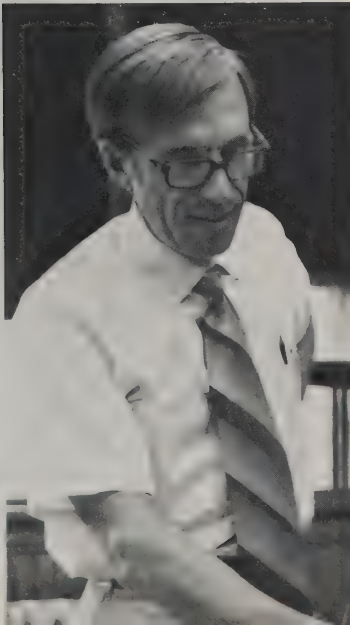

Mr. Robert Smith — science
"In school, in sports, in life; you never get anything for nothing."

Mr. Robert Stevens — math
"Men are like clay; imperfections show up in both when they are under fire."

Mr. Stanley Stolarz — English

Mrs. Suchorebrow — office aide
"We are treated well here."

Mr. Donald Stratton — gym
"It's great to be at Classical."

... With Your Decisions

Know the Past . . .

As we grow older,
we question what is happening in the world today. The teachers urged that we look at the lessons of the past,
and in that way we will begin to understand the present.

Mrs. Gale Sullivan — science

Mr. John Sullivan — math
"Nothing says it better than the words of Descartes, ""Cogito ergo sum.""

Mr. John Sweeney —
assistant principal

"Classical is a fine school with fine traditions . . . an excellent preparation for college."

Mr. Miles Tipton — gym

"I'm happy to be here. It's a good year, good classes. The general attitude of the students is good."

Mrs. Phyllis Thomas — English

Miss Priscilla Varzeas — gym

"A day is lost if we have not smiled and shared."

Miss Barbara Weissbrod — math

"It's great to be alive! Live each day fully and be happy! Always remember that Today is the first day of the rest of your life."

Mrs. Jeanne Wessman — language
 "Voici mon secret. Il est tres simple: On ne voit bien qu'avec le coeur. L'essentiel est invisible pour les yeux."

— Le Petit Prince

Mrs. Harriet Widland — English

Mrs. Doris Wuraftic — English

"In the time of your life, live — so that in that wondrous time you shall not add to the misery and sorrow of the world, but shall smile to the infinite delight and mystery of it."

— Saroyan

Mr. Neil Yesu —
 assistant principal

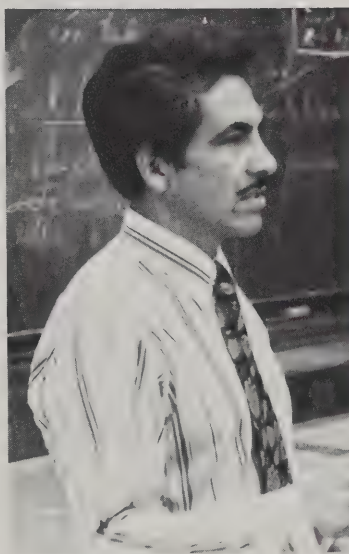

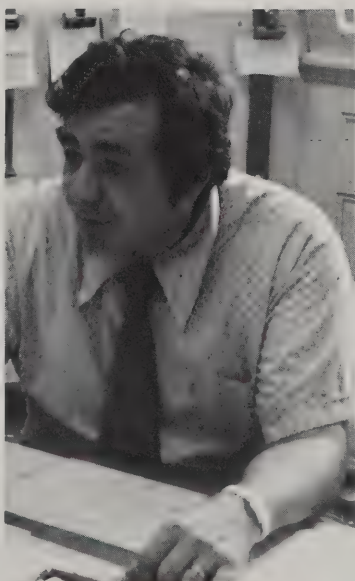

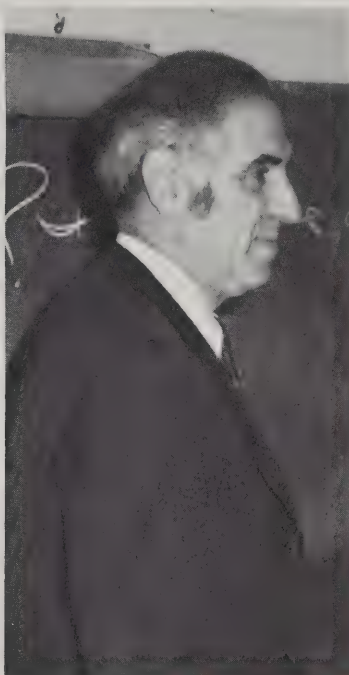

"We are in the business to help kids and there are different ways of rendering assistance. Basically, I attempt to instill into students the philosophy of Classical. Hopefully, they will come to appreciate what a liberal arts school is, and their mature conduct and diligence in study will eliminate my role as disciplinarian."

Mr. William Young — history

"A man's reach should not exceed his grasp."

Mr. Alberto Zavala — language

"May 1972-1973 in Classical High be a torch that brightly lights your life's path. May you continue to grow in knowledge, wisdom, and understanding. May you always find time to work for love and peace. May your future generations bless you for helping make their world a Beautiful Place to live in. Vaya con Dios."

Understanding begins to replace
Confusion, and despair becomes
A past deception.

The junior class of Classical accomplished no great feats to leave as a legacy to future classes. The class of '74, instead, concentrated its energies on shrugging off the freshman blanket of capriciousness in exchange for maturity needed in their fast-approaching senior year.

1. Junior Class Officers, LEFT TO RIGHT: Jay Hammond, member-at-large; Jeff Tomchik, president; Diane Vecchiarelli, vice-president; Barbara Blake, secretary; Sue Dimm, treasurer.

2.

Finds Cycles

As we on the Blue and White tried to find the various cycles at Classical, we discovered our own life cycle. We begin the work in the spring, as our sports section collects the warm weather sports' pictures. In summer, the senior portraits are taken. Fall brings a flurry of picture taking for all sections. By winter, we are frantically trying to keep deadlines. In spring the vicious cycle starts anew. This year, the madness was immeasurably aided by the assistance of faculty adviser Miss Lorraine Plasse.

Recorder

Consistent Excellence

Under the guidance of adviser Mr. Henry Brady, the Recorder strives to keep Classical students informed of events in the school. It is a true student newspaper, completely written and edited by Classical students. Equipped with an enthusiastic staff, Recorder continues to maintain a First Place or Medalist rating by the Columbia Scholastic Press Association.

Scribe

Outlet for Creativity

Scribe, Classical's literary magazine, leaped into the lives of Classical students this year. Faithful bulletin readers were treated to such daily announcements as, "Scribe wants your essays, short stories, poems, photographs, and sketches;" and occasionally, "Scribe wishes you a happy holiday." The publicity paid off and the staff, Mrs. Jean Bogan's eleventh grade honors English class, was gratified by the response.

Aesthetics

Pierides/Culture Vultures

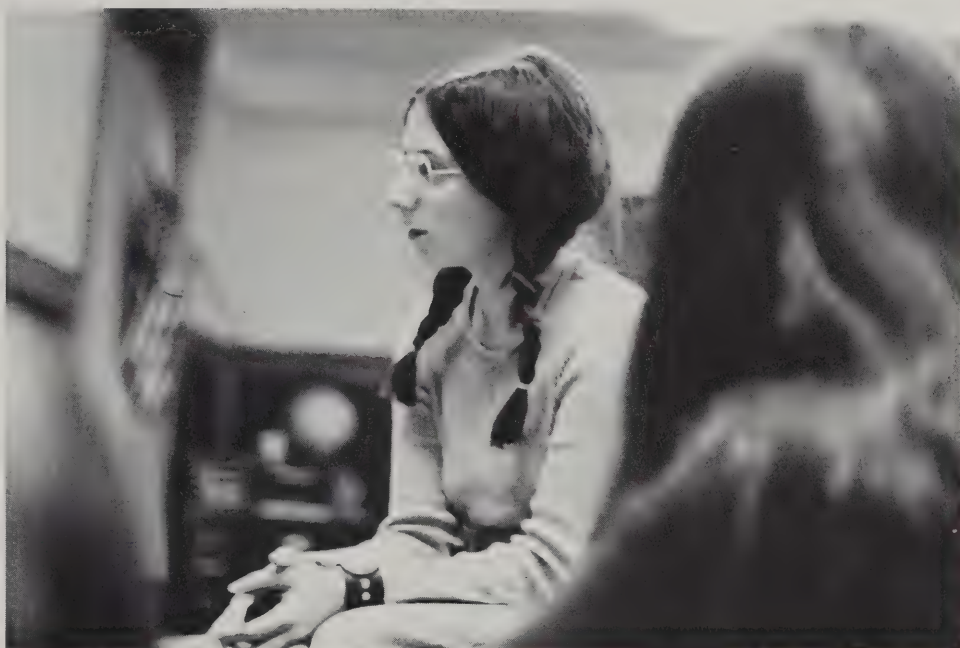

Two of Classical's more unusual clubs, Pierides and Culture Vultures, seek to enhance the student's knowledge of the arts. Pierides' members discuss amongst themselves novels, poems, short stories, or movies that they have read or seen recently. Members of Culture Vultures make monthly visits to the George Walter Vincent Smith Art Museum, where they can closely examine the temporary and permanent exhibits of the museum. Museum director Mr. Donald Reichert enthusiastically explains the historical and cultural background of each piece to the students.

Student Government On Your Behalf

In its efforts to promote the general welfare of Classical, the Student Government started early this year in perhaps its most essential function, the Student Treasury drive, which ended with about 32% of the student body investing. Besides conducting the freshman elections and dealing with the "routine" crises that inevitably develop, the Student Government joined with Technical High School to sponsor the Mad John concert held early in December. Taking place in the Tech gym, the concert became one more achievement of a busy year for Student Government.

The NHS

For Academic Excellence

The William C. Hill chapter of the National Honor Society has enjoyed a relatively quiet year despite all intentions to the contrary. Circumstance seems to have prevailed over the society's plans for attending concerts and theatrical productions. The society did, however, assume its traditional role as sponsor of the Annual Alumni Tea, and the twenty-first of December saw about 300 students, both past and present, gathered in the cafeteria to visit with friends. Only the tea was lacking.

As Schools Match Wits

A Game Of Competitive Omniscience

After several months of diligent practice under the supervision of Mr. John Sullivan, this year's team met the ominous opposition of Holyoke High. Unfortunately, the Classical team seemed frustrated with the qualifying questions for each category and, consequently, lost the match by the embarrassing margin of 235 to 75. Although disappointed, all claimed to have thoroughly enjoyed themselves.

The Committees

A Benevolent Bureaucracy

Developing trends towards a larger student voice in matters of policy have resulted in numerous committees and councils that involve students in one way or another. The Student Court was established in 1969 in concession to demands of the time. Serving as a means of appealing "cruel and unusual" punishments bestowed upon students by the faculty, it presently has a very light case load. The job of the Student-Faculty Committee is to deal with issues that concern both students and instructors. This group has devoted much of its time to a revision of the present grading system. The Superintendent's Student Advisory Council was instituted in

'69 to ease the then tense situation in Springfield schools. Since then, it has met periodically with Dr. Deady to advise him on such matters as drug education and the future forms of secondary schools in the city. Recent legislation has provided for student representation on municipal school committees and, at Classical, this takes the form of David Gaby and Mark Piscioneri who were elected this fall to serve on the Student Advisory Council to the School Committee. Meanwhile, issues concerning the State Board of Education are discussed by the Springfield Regional Youth Advisory Council of which Classical's member is Kathryn Pyle.

According to her, although the Council is hindered by "a lack of student awareness, . . . it can play a part in solving school problems." Such can be said of all of the groups mentioned here.

Greaser Day Rock Around The Clock

This year, Classical High School students participated in a revival of the 1950's. Setting the scene, the students dressed in a way reminiscent of the bobby sock and bow tie era. Induced by Bob Zancan, Connie Vatrano, and Barbara Whiting, this "slick" event was surprisingly successful.

Open Campus

Exploring New Interests

After being in effect for only half of last year, Open Campus was reinstituted at the beginning of this school year. This program gives students an opportunity during their free periods to explore various cultural resources such as the nearby library and museums. Headed by David Gaby, the Open Campus Committee opened information booths in the Annex and main building. Working with the Student Government Speakers Committee, they coordinated programs by obtaining speakers and films, and making available voluntary, non-credit courses.

Girls' Patrol

Always Ready

Classical's Girls' Patrol is comprised of dedicated juniors and seniors under the guidance of Miss Ruth Dickerman. Appreciating their help in delivering messages and filing are the counselors and office secretaries. These tasks are voluntarily done by the girls, who give up their homeroom and study periods to aid our school.

Advised by Mr. Annino, the spirited and energetic Boys' Patrol help to maintain order in the corridors and lunch rooms, and promote, as well, a great deal of enthusiasm at the various school activities. Last year, during the month of December, their major accomplishment was the successful drive to collect over $200 for the Toy for Joy Fund.

Afro-American Club

Students Forming A Unified Group

The main objective of the Afro-American Club is to develop greater Black awareness and understanding among students and to project knowledge and understanding of Black heritage. This year the club sponsored the Mark McAlpine Literary contest. The contest, open to all students of high school age, was in memory of the late Mark McAlpine, a former member of the Afro-American club and student of Classical.

The Classical Chess Club, as Western Mass. champs for the third year in a row and as present state co-champs, have a tough honor to defend. The chessmen agree that interest in the game has grown due to the Fisher-Spassky match. Senate/Forum

Serving Different Aims

While they share many members, the Senate and Forum stress two different aspects of public speaking. The Forum, founded four years ago, concentrates on informal and extemporaneous speech. In contrast, the Senate, Classical's oldest organization, follows strict parliamentary procedure. Annually the Senate sends members to two area model congresses and selects the club's four top debators to compete in the Senate Tablet Debate.

Learning New Skills

Camera Club/Future Teachers' Club/Biology Club

"The main purpose of the Camera Club is to educate students in photography and to educate them in both the artistic viewpoint of photography and in different techniques." The Camera Club, advised by Mr. Guzowski, went on many field trips equipped with their cameras and had an exhibit of their photographs at the Springfield City Library this year. The Future Teachers' Club tries to promote an interest in education as a possible career. One of the club's many activities this year included a visit to a local nursing home as a Christmas project. The Biology Club is for students interested in this science. Its members are always eager for new specimens for dissection. Other club activities include experimentation in the construction of molecular models and discussions about new biological findings

Service

Students Help Out

Helping Miss Brown in the school library is a highly capable staff of library aides. These aides help to keep the library running efficiently and perform such duties as stamping and shelving books and issuing passes. The Audio Visual Aides help to make classroom presentations enjoyable and run smoothly. The AVA delivers and operates film projectors and other similar equipment. The School Store provides a wide range of necessary school supplies. The Stage Crew manages all the technical behind-the-scene work at assemblies, lectures, and other school functions.

Choir And Choruses

Concerts Performed

Classical's 70 voice choir warbled through another full year, performing at Christmas and Spring concerts. Selected at the end of each year from the freshman choruses, the choir culminated this year's schedule with a performance at graduation.

Girls' and Boys' choruses, with 80 and 18 voices respectively, also perform at scheduled concerts and are composed of any students desiring to sing. Choral director Paul Robbins trains the students in not only the generalities, but also the mechanics of fine group singing.

Madrigal And Orchestra

Select Groups

Classical's top singers and instrumentalists compose these two select groups. Madrigal's busy year included many area performances aside from school concerts, and also caroling during the holidays. With approximately 20 voices, this year's group continued to maintain the tradition set by the Madrigal Singers in former years. Orchestra also kept busy this year with periodic performances. Several members also participated in the Young Peoples' Symphony Orchestra's concerts. The Orchestra is directed by Dr. Vincent O'Keefe.

Band

Unequalled School Spirit

Classical's Band, scheduled to receive new uniforms this year, marched through the season in shirts and jeans.

According to band president David Winer, "The school spirit generated by our band this year could never be equalled by any other Classical High School organization," and indeed they proved to be the football team's most loyal rooters. Rounding out another great marching season under the direction of Dr. Vincent O'Keefe, the band still had plans for other activities including a jazz concert in the spring.

Meanwhile, this year's crew of majorettes, led by head twirler Sabrina Ware, put in another fine season high-stepping it down the field.

Football

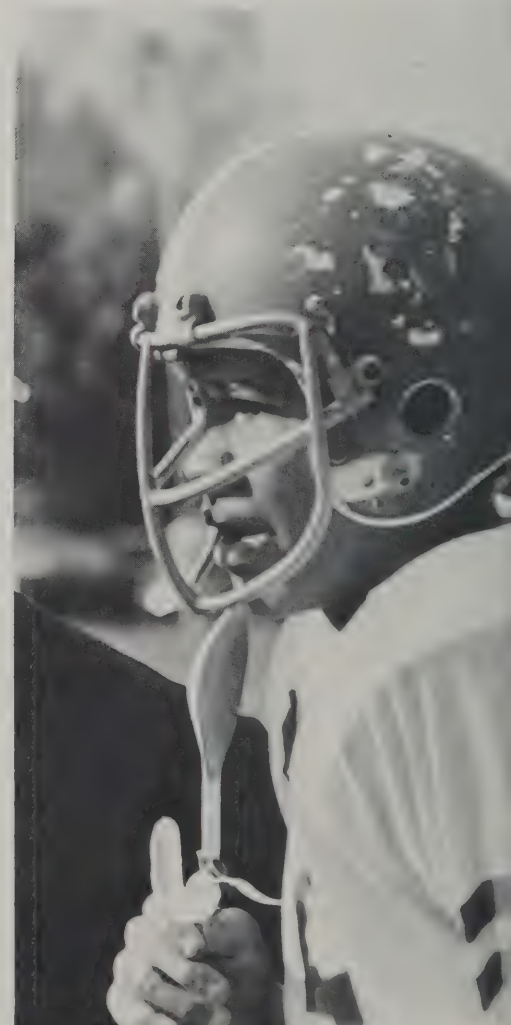

Win Streak Ends at 12

East Longmeadow proved the spoiler for the Classical gridmen this past football season. Classical's defeat to the Suburban League's biggest threat cost them the chance for a divisional title and a playoff berth. "A couple of key interceptions and a fumbled punt return cost us that game," said a senior member of this year's defensive team. The next week, a disheartened Bulldog squad lost the only other game of the season against underdog Longmeadow. The team breezed through the remainder of their schedule and finished up with a respectable seven wins and two losses.

"An underrated defense performed well throughout the season. Good linebackers in McNerny, Kircherr, and Hastings kept the rest of the defense fired up," remarked Mike Nardi, a senior. Soccer

Team Grabs League Title

A new coach, new spirit, and new key players were Classical's ingredients for capturing the Interschool League

Soccer title. The team was well balanced and had plenty of depth. Injuries plagued most of the members, but Coach Stratton alternated his players with remarkable continuity.

Cris Lynch and co-captains Mark Racine and Steve Leger led the defense, while John Sousa, Vin Smith, and Mike Badger provided the offensive punch. Classical led the league throughout the season which was highlighted with a 3-2 victory over State Champ Cathedral, and a 4-0 shutout over Tech. The booters finished with an impressive 6 wins, 1 loss, and 1 tie. Classical headed into the Western Mass. Tourney seeded fifth and played Taconic. Although the Bulldogs dominated the game around Taconic's goal, the game was marred with frustration. They outshot and outplayed Taconic but lost on a penalty shot late in the game.

JV Wins Title

The 1972-73 JV Soccer team finished the year with a powerful record of 9-2-3. The team lost only to Chicopee and Cathedral. Most members from last year's squad were moved up to the varsity, so Mr. Keough and Mr. Smith had their work cut out for them. Cagers Surprised

It was a year of frustration for new coach Dave Stratton and his ball players. The Bulldogs, loaded with talent, met tough competition in the city league, with all teams fielding strong squads. The Classical five started off in a streak, winning their first five in a row. Then the hoopsters met Commerce at the brand new civic center. The Bulldogs almost took the contest but the Red Raiders pulled it out in double overtime. The hoopsters later lost to both Tech and Cathedral, but had a relatively easy time outside of the Interschool League. Captains David Rose and Leroy Goodwin led the balanced Bulldog attack. "Rose was the team leader, the best all-around player," said one of his teammates. Jeff Richardson was a good scorer for the hoopsters until he was injured. Seniors Bob Jennings and Len Shand were excellent guards. Coach Stratton proved to be a knowledgeable mentor. In what was to be a rebuilding year, and for a team that lacked height and experience, the team did as well as could be as expected.

Hockey

Injuries Haunt Skaters

Classical, hit by a rash of injuries to key players, did not finish where they were expected to during the regular season. The Bulldogs were buried down in the standings under the Berry Division big guns, Amherst and Cathedral. However, the pucksters still finished up in playoff contention with a very respectable record of 11-4-1. Classical showed it was not going to be brushed off easily in the playoffs by tying division champ Amherst, beating last year's WM champ Cathedral, and trouncing always dangerous West Side in the season finale, 6-1.

Hockey

Depth Backbone Of Squad

The first line of Mike Badger, Marty Reilly, and Rick Mastroianni was the big producer for the Bulldogs. Reilly suffered a broken wrist, and Badger had a bad ankle, but both ended up in the top ten in scoring. Steve Kravitz centered the close — checking second line between Dan Piquette and Gene O'Brien. Captain Tom Skelly combined with junior John Gentile and freshman Steve Zanetti to make up the third line. John Butler anchored the Bulldog defense, with Jeff Tuller, Dave Allen, John Robinson, and John Lenilko as other steady blueline performers. Coach Carlin could call also on many able players from the bench.

Swimming

Team Effort Brings Glory

"This year's team was definitely the best in the history of the Classical swim team," commented coach Otto Wulff when asked about the mermen. This year the team rallied together to compile a record of 9-4. Coach Wulff's philosophy about team effort as opposed to individual glory prevailed as the mermen upset East Longmeadow and Minnechaug. The relay team of Jon Kowinski, Paul Miles, Mark Gulow, and Paul Davis came through setting new school records. Also, Dave McKay set a record in diving competition. Although the team is losing key swimmers, Coach Wulff is hopeful that hardworking swimmers of this year can win it all next season.

Bowling

Power To Spare

Although slow in starting, the Classical bowling team ended its second round in second place. A disappointing first round record of 8-24 was followed up by an impressive second round of 20-12. Coach Jermakian cited the work of senior bowlers Mark Plasse, Richard Johnson, and captain Dan Johnson, and mentioned that "the team is definitely on the upgrade" in view of promising freshmen Mike Radwicz and Dave Van Gessel. Also predicted as the captain and backbone of next year's team was Andy Hervieux.

Baseball

JV Ties For City Crown

The Classical 71-72 JV squad followed in the path of the varsity with an excellent campaign. The JV tied for first place in the city loop, splitting games with both Tech and Cathedral. The only other loss was against Chicopee Comp. The team finished with 15 wins and 3 losses. Dave Basile and Marty Reilly pitched excellently for the little Bulldogs, while Jeff Tomchik, Al Alminas, and Frank Ballas were standouts in the infield. Steve Arpino and Billy Santaniello were strong hitting outfielders. Varsity hopes for next season look good with the immense talent from the JV coming up to the varsity.

Baseball

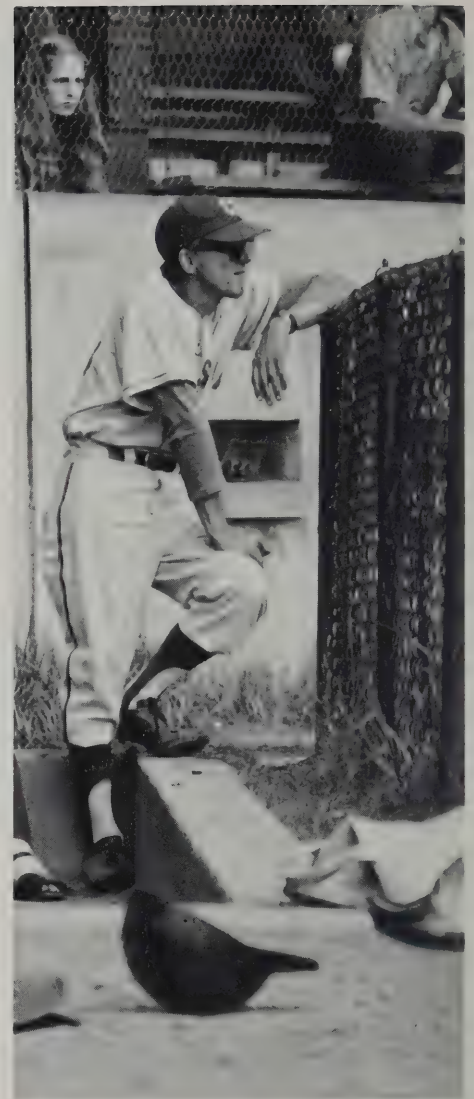

Cop Spot In WM Tournament

The Classical baseball team provided both exciting and embarrassing moments alike during the 71-72 season. The Bulldogs, on their way to the WM tournament, won two important battles against rival Tech, 7-2 and 10-9. The team played Wahconah in a playoff to gain a berth in post-season play and beat them in an exciting 4-3 game, which Classical won in the bottom of the ninth. The only sour notes of the season were four consecutive losses to Cathedral, including the one that knocked them out of the playoffs. The Bulldogs, it seems, just could not unleash their attack against the Cathedral nine.

"We had a better team, but it was like they put a jinx on us," was the way one player described it. Cathedral thrashed Classical 9-1 to bring the season to an abrupt end. The Bulldog's lively offense was led by all-city players Mark Mullan and Ron Restaino. Mike Farrell added some needed power and Mark Mullin scored many runs as the all-important leadoff batter. Jim Swiatlowski, Roger Barratt, Larry Feinberg, Dan Tricco, and Mark Gallagher were the mainstays of the pitching staff.

Crew

A Disappointing Season

An inexperienced crew team ended the 1971-72 season with a disappointing record of 0 wins and 3 losses.

Coach Otto Wulff felt the team raced better as the season progressed. Senior co-captains John Dieters and Ken Later were the backbone of the varsity team.

Golf

Golfers Finish Second

The 1972 golf team turned in a successful season boasting an impressive 6-2 record.

The City Title was lost, however, when the Bulldogs played Cathedral, losing 13-5.

Playing consistent golf throughout the season were seniors Neil Davis, Jeff MacKechnie, captain Dave Demos, and juniors Mike Majka and Ed Quigley. Classical sent five entries into the Western Mass. Championship, but they failed to make the cut for the state tourney.

Track

Trackmen Stumble

Coach Donald Vaughn retired on a somewhat disappointing note in his final coaching season at Classical. The trackmen, not as successful as expected, finished the season with a 1-3 record. Disabled by a key injury to Glen Fell, the trackmen were only able to manage a fourth place finish in the city meet.

Seniors Fell, Bob McDonald, and Mark Todd gave Vaughn excellent performances and freshman Frank Buntin was a sensational performer in the long jump and 220.

Tennis

Netmen Go Winless

Crippled by the loss of key seniors, the Classical 71-72 tennis team struggled to a disappointing record of no wins and sixteen losses.

The team, made up entirely of juniors and freshmen, seemed to lack the experience to compile a winning record. Bright spots on the team's roster, however, were number 1 singles player Mitch Singer, who won two matches, and the doubles team of Greg Buxton and Pat Hayes, who also notched two victories. Coach Harold Drowne predicts that next year's squad will show marked improvement.

G.A.A.

Athletic Association

Finally reorganized, the Girls' Athletic Association has launched itself to a promising start. Thanks to dedicated officers and advisers, Mrs. Desrochers and Miss Varzeas, ten girls' sports were organized. The sports are both competitive and recreational. The offerings include field hockey, horseback riding, swimming, gymnastics, yoga, modern dance, basketball, tennis, softball, volleyball, and cross country.

Swimming

This year girls from Classical, Technical, and Commerce met twice a week at Van Sickle and Kennedy Jr. High Schools to strengthen their swimming form. Having had a few competitions this year, they hope to have more meets in the future. Mrs. Havens from Tech and Miss Massucci from Commerce helped teach new techniques.

Field Hockey

Entered League

Congratulations to Mrs. Desrochers and the team for their achievement in becoming the first Springfield high school girls' field hockey team to join a league. This year the field hockey team aroused new interest and became one of the more successful girls' sports events. Mrs. D's high spirited team traveled with Mrs. Williams' Commerce High School team to many of the out of town games.

Horseback Riding Growing Interest

The growing support of horseback riding, introduced last year, allowed this after school activity to continue and expand this year. After completing the four week program offered at Whitewood Stables, the girls were awarded diplomas of certification.

Gymnastics

Skill In Grace And Form

In hopes that it will soon be competitive, a girls' gymnastics team was originated by the G.A.A. Under the guidance of Mrs. Desrochers, many of the girls devoted time to learn and perfect gymnastics methods. The girls met three times a week to reinforce skills on the uneven parallel bar, balance beam, horse, and mats. The girls strived for perfection of form, creativity, and coordination in the presentation of their stunts.

1 — Guanita Fennell demonstrates how a headspring is performed on the horse, as a friend, Marguerite Foster, spot checks her. 2 — Kathy Russell poses in perfect from on the uneven parallels. 3 — Cindy Midura helps Linda Giammarino, since it's not as easy as it seems.

Tennis

Fundamental Methods

The girls met once a week to build and develop basic tennis skills. Although they did not compete this year, they hope to have more students next year so they will be able to participate in matches. Mrs. June Shoppe devoted her time to act as their instructor.

2

Basketball

Successful Season

The girls' basketball team, coached by Miss Varzeas, proved to be superior to much of their competition. They played with skill, spirit, and vigor at all of their games. The leadership of center Kathy Parker and forward Linda Hill strengthened the competent first string. For the latter of their scheduled eight games, new uniforms for the team were furnished by the G.A.A.

3

1 — Miss Varzeas gives last minute pointers during a time out. 2 — Peggy Garde gets ready to make her shot. 3 — Karen Harden shows determination in getting a basket. 4 — Kathy Parker confidently smiles while taking her foul shot.

Cheerleading

"Give Me A C!"

Renewing school spirit was a fulfilling task this year for our cheerleaders. Winning or losing, in rain or shine, they always cheered our teams. The cheerleaders, under the guidance of Miss Johnson and the leadership of their captain, Janet Zanolli, and co-captain, Kathy DeSanti, perfected old and developed new, arousing cheers. They were also successful in their drives to outfit themselves in new uniforms which they wore during the basketball season. The Junior Varsity Cheerleaders, advised by Mrs. Sullivan, cheered at many of the J.V. events.
